Dapper FOR DUMMIES®

A Reference for the Rest of Us! International Edition

If you like the feel of paper, the smell of ink, and intellectually sparring with likeminded individuals (feel free to ignore the difficult words) this is your chance! And it's very simple after all, as the diagram below shows...

In other words: pen down a few (more or less relevant) words 3 to 6 times a year. Send those to the OEditor, and in return you will receive the collective works of all participants. Costs are limited to postage and perhaps a little printing and / or copying, depending on your preferences.

Think of Dapper as your very personal magazine, dealing with Fantasy, Science Fiction, and whatever else piques our interest.
